- a) Meeting agenda and materials to be used in the meeting;
 - b) List and detailed information of candidates in case of election of members of the Board of Directors and members of the Board of Supervisors;
 - c) Voting slip;
 - d) Draft resolutions for each item on the meeting agenda.
4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 12 of the Charter have the right to propose issues to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Proposals must be in writing and must be sent to the Company no later than 3 working days before the opening of the meeting. The proposal must clearly state the name of the shareholder, the number of each type of share held by the shareholder, and the issue proposed for inclusion in the agenda.
5. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to reject the proposal stipulated in Clause 4 of this Article if it falls under one of the following cases:
- a) The petition was submitted in violation of the provisions of Clause 4 of this Article;
 - b) At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least 5% of the common shares as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 12 of the Charter;
 - c) The proposed issue falls outside the scope of authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - d) Other cases as prescribed by law and the Charter.
6. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders must accept and include the proposal stipulated in Clause 4 of this Article in the proposed agenda and content of the meeting, except as provided in Clause 5 of this Article; the proposal shall be officially added to the agenda and content of the meeting if it is approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 19. Conditions for holding a General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders is conducted when the number of shareholders in attendance represents more than 50% of the total voting rights .
2. If the first meeting does not meet the quorum requirements as stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article, a notice inviting shareholders to a second meeting shall be sent within 30 days from the date of the first scheduled meeting. The second General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held when the number of shareholders attending represents 33% or more of the total voting shares.
3. If the second meeting fails to meet the quorum requirements as stipulated in Clause 2 of this Article, a notice inviting shareholders to a third meeting must be sent within 20 days of the scheduled date of the second meeting. The third General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held regardless of the total number of votes cast by the shareholders present.

Article 20. Procedures for conducting meetings and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Before the meeting commences, the Company must conduct shareholder registration and continue the registration process until all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting have registered, following this procedure :
 - a) When registering shareholders, the Company issues each shareholder or authorized representative a voting card , which includes the registration number, the shareholder's full name, the authorized representative's full name, and the shareholder's voting number. The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each item on the agenda. Voting is conducted by vote in favor, against, or abstention. The results of the vote count are announced by the Chairman immediately before the closing of the meeting. The General Meeting elects those responsible for counting or supervising the vote count as proposed by the Chairman. The number of members of the vote counting committee is decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposal of the Chairman of the meeting;
 - b) Shareholders, authorized representatives of institutional shareholders, or authorized persons arriving after the meeting has commenced have the right to register immediately and subsequently have the right to participate and vote at the meeting immediately after registration. The chairperson is not obligated to stop the meeting to allow late-arriving shareholders to register, and the validity of any previously voted-on items remains unchanged.
2. The election of the chairperson, secretary, and vote counting committee is regulated as follows:
 - a) The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall act as the chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders or may authorize another member of the Board of Directors to do so for the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors. If the Chairman is absent or temporarily incapacitated, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of them to be a chairperson of the meeting by majority vote. If no one can be elected to preside, the Head of the Board of Supervisors shall preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairperson from among those present, and the person with the highest number of votes shall preside over the meeting;
 - b) Except as provided in point a of this clause, the signatory convening the General Meeting of Shareholders shall preside over the meeting so that the General Meeting of Shareholders can elect the chairman of the meeting, and the person with the highest number of votes shall be the chairman of the meeting;
 - c) The chairperson appoints one or more people to act as meeting secretaries;
 - d) The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect one or more members to the vote counting committee upon the recommendation of the meeting chairman.
3. The agenda and content of the meeting must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the opening session. The agenda must clearly and specifically define the time allocated to each item on the agenda.
4. The chairperson of the meeting has the right to take necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda, and reflecting the wishes of the majority of attendees .

- a) Arrange seating at the Shareholders' General Meeting venue;
 - b) Ensure the safety of everyone present at the meeting venues;
 - c) To facilitate shareholder attendance (or continued attendance) at the general meeting. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders has the full right to change the above-mentioned measures and apply all necessary measures. These measures may include issuing entry passes or using other selection methods.
5. The General Meeting of Shareholders will discuss and vote on each item on the agenda. Voting will be conducted by vote of approval, disapproval, and abstention. The results of the vote count will be announced by the chairman immediately before the closing of the meeting.
 6. Shareholders or their authorized representatives who arrive after the meeting has commenced are still entitled to register and participate in voting immediately after registration; in this case, the validity of any previously voted-on items remains unchanged.
 7. The person convening or presiding over the General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights:
 - a) Require all meeting attendees to undergo security checks or other lawful and reasonable security measures;
 - b) Request the competent authority to maintain order at the meeting; expel those who do not comply with the chairman's authority, intentionally disrupt order, hinder the normal progress of the meeting, or fail to comply with security checks from the General Meeting of Shareholders.
 8. The Chairperson has the right to postpone a Shareholders' General Meeting that has reached the maximum number of registered attendees for no more than 3 working days from the scheduled opening date, and may only postpone or change the meeting location in the following cases:
 - a) The meeting venue does not have enough convenient seating for all attendees;
 - b) The communication facilities at the meeting venue do not ensure that shareholders attending the meeting can participate, discuss, and vote;
 - c) Some attendees obstruct or disrupt the meeting, potentially preventing it from being conducted fairly and lawfully.
 9. If the chairperson postpones or suspends the General Meeting of Shareholders contrary to the provisions of Clause 8 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person from among the attendees to replace the chairperson and conduct the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions adopted at that meeting shall be effective and enforceable.
 10. In cases where the Company applies modern technology to organize the General Meeting of Shareholders through online meetings, the Company is responsible for ensuring that shareholders can attend and vote by electronic ballot or other electronic means as prescribed in Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises and Clause 3, Article 273 of Government Decree No. 155/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020, detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Law on Securities.

Article 21. Conditions for the adoption of a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Resolutions shall be approved when approved by shareholders holding 65% or more of the total voting rights of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting, except for the

- cases stipulated in Clauses 3, 4, and 6 of Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises:
